ALASKA PLACERS
(By Associated Press)
JUNEAU, Alaska, July 20.—(By Mail).—Nearly 30 plants employing between 250 and 300 men are now in full operation at the placer mining camp of Tolovna, near the Fairbanks district. Mining men familiar with conditions expect the district of Tolovna to produce more than $1,000,000 in gold this year.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS ON BLACK ROCK DESERT

The Review-Miner says Frank Hoskins, who was born in Lovelock and lived there most of his life, was found on the Black Rock desert suffering from a stroke of paralysis. It is said that he was out on a prospecting trip when the stroke caught him, and he lay there for two days and a night before he was found. His rescuers took him to the Western Pacific railroad and he was taken to a hospital in Sacramento.

SCOUTS RETURN HOME SUNDAY FROM THEIR REESE RIVER CAMP

The Tonopah boy and girl scouts will return from their trip to Reese river on Sunday afternoon and their parents may expect to see as fine a lot of sunburned kids as ever picked up a dusky hue on the beaches. Camp will be broken early Sunday morning when the young folks will begin loading the big motor truck belonging to George Mannington so that the slow going vehicle may get a good start before the lighter cars begin the journey. Some of the cars will leave Tonopah Saturday night, but the majority of them will not depart until daybreak Sunday morning so that the picnicers may enjoy their outing to the last minute.

Reports from the camp state that in spite of the cold weather there has been but a single case of sickness and that nothing more than a trifling complaint which yielded readily to treatment. The location of the camp is one and one-half miles south of Bell's upper ranch on Reese river in a beautifully shaded canyon with just enough meadow for a small camp. The campers carried blankets and sleeping equipment with them and spent the nights in the open air. A big tent, 24x40, loaned by Pete Petroni, was provided in the event of a storm or any inclement weather which would have made outdoor sleeping rather risky, but the big top was not used at all. The menu comprised all the milk and vegetables that could be consumed and the quantity of fish depended on the activity of the boys and girls who were at liberty to hook all they wanted right from the Reese river which flows by the camp.

The drivers who took the scouts out to camp say the first impression on arriving at the camping place was that a lot of wild birds had been set loose for both boys and girls just broke from the cars and scampered in wild abandon over the green landscape and down by the river as though they had never seen the like before. It was a great treat and the parents of the scouts will be thankful to the Nye County Council of Defense which made the trip possible.

SERVICE FUNERAL FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The funeral of the late Andrew Service, who died yesterday afternoon, will take place tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from the Elks' home and the remains will be interred in the Elks' plot in the local cemetery. The cause of death was miners' consumption contracted in the old Delamar mine and mill where the glassy dust was responsible for the deaths of hundreds of other strong men, but a rugged constitution enabled the old man to fight off the end for many years. He was born in Ireland, near Belfast, 68 years ago, and came to this country in one of the old Black Ball clippers with father and mother. His father died on the voyage and his mother lived but a short time after landing. Andy and his brother were taken to a kinsman at Sugar Creek, N. Y., and later lived at Franklin, Pa., where the deceased met W. S. Bryden who accompanied him to Nevada in 1877 and remained his staunch friend to death. The first stopping place was at Tempe, Lincoln county, and some time later Mr. Service took charge of the Nevada Alpine mine. He also was engaged in the mercantile business, owning the Frisco store, which he bought from C. J. Blumenthal. He was not a member of the Masonic bodies, reports to the contrary notwithstanding, as the Elks was the only organization with which he was affiliated.

SEVERELY BURNED WHILE CLEANING CAR WITH GASOLINE

While cleaning the engine of his automobile at the camp of National a few days ago Erling Prout, a mining man, was quite severely burned when the gasoline he was using caught fire. He had a piece of broken spring in his hand and in working around the machine the piece of metal came in contact with the self starter battery, sending a spark into the pan of gasoline which he had in his hand. He was burned about the face and body. His trousers were almost burned away and the fact that he had on woolen underwear saved him from serious burns.—Humboldt Star

HAS KNEE CAP BROKEN

While hauling some old iron from the dumping ground near the new high school Saturday afternoon, the team Richard See was driving started to run away and he had the misfortune to have one of his kneecaps broken. The accident happened about 3 o'clock and in trying to control the team a long piece of iron which had caught in one of the wheels struck him on the knee with the above result.—Humboldt Star

PURCHASES MINING MACHINERY AT CAMP OF NATIONAL

W. F. Boyker, representing the George J. Shoup interests at the camp of Gold Circle, has purchased a lot of mining machinery at National from C. R. Squires. The machinery consists of a compressor, steel galloways frame, pump and an engine. A truck left here yesterday morning for National to haul the machinery to Gold Circle.

INCREASING STOCK OF THE REINDEER

(By Associated Press)
NENANA, Alaska, July 12.—(By Mail).—Plans are being made to move a large reindeer herd across central Alaska from the Yukon and Kuskokwim coast sections to the Copper River valley after the "freezing" this fall, according to information received here by Stephen Foster, game warden.

The deer are to be moved by the reindeer service branch of the United States bureau of education. Native herders will accompany the animals. The deer will be planted in the Copper River valley near Copper Center. If they thrive more will probably be sent later.

PIONEER HOMESTEAD DESTROYED BY FIRE

Last evening, about 7 o'clock, the Major Gardner home was discovered on fire. There is no fire protection provisions within a considerable distance and the place was burned to the ground.

The loss of the old Gardner home removes one of the real old fashioned homesteads of this section. The home was constructed during the early days by Major Gardner, who at that time was one of the successful contractors and timber men of this section, supplying Virginia City with his lumber and wood. No expense was spared and the home was the gathering place of the young people of the generation that has grown and gone.—Carson News.

GOING TO STRING WIRES TO THE KAISER'S DOOR

Sergeant William J. Drewes, of Co. C, 326th flag signal corps, writes from his station at Newport News to Mr. and Mrs. John Nicol: "I expect to sail any day now. Will bag a few Huns for you if the boys don't get them all before we get there. Am sure glad that I got in this outfit. We're one big family and a bunch of stickers. Will let you know when we get to string wires to the Kaiser's door. I'm a 'top' sergeant of Co. C and enjoy the work."

Mr. Drewes was former manager of the Golden Rule store and was one of the first to respond to the call.

SUPERINTENDENT NAMED

At a meeting of the board of control of the state industrial school the appointment of a superintendent to relieve John Henderson was taken up and by a unanimous vote of the board E. J. Milne, formerly judge of the Salt Lake juvenile court, was appointed superintendent, at a salary of $200 per month, his term of office to begin September 15, 1918.

IVAN ARNOLD GIVEN HEARTY SEND OFF

Inasmuch as the new draft bill is pending, extending the conscription age to between 18 and 45 years, it is probable that Ivan C. Arnold will have been the last volunteer to leave Tonopah, at least for a few months. He departed this morning, with a remembrance of one of the most spontaneous and heartfelt farewells greetings that have been given any of the departures for humanity's war. The parade was not a long one, owing to the departure of the boy and girl scouts for their vacation trip, but everyone in line was a personal friend and was enthused. The principal units in the procession were the color bearers for the flags of the allies, veterans of the civil war, members of the Red Cross, the Tonopah Military band, citizens' drum corps, Masons and Elks. Many autos and citizens fell into line.

Ivan C. Arnold, entrained for Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, where he will be a member of the engineer corps during his training preparatory to his departure for "over there." His mother accompanied him as far as Reno and will from there go to the coast to visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. K. Fisher, while Ivan is at war.

Last night the departing recruit was given honors by the Masons and Elks, of which orders he is a member in highest standing. The Masons presented him with a wrist watch and the Elks with a shaving set.

Just before the departure of the train Thomas Lindsay was called to the platform and he paid a fitting tribute to the boy who was leaving for the colors. There were thunders of applause at his conclusion. The farewells were warm-hearted and sincere in their appreciation.

He was sheriff of Churchill county for 21 years and has been a resident of the state for over eighteen years. The work of organizing the state under his direction in co-operation with the state committee and the community labor boards will be started at once.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

Extraordinary program at the Butler today under the auspices of the council of defense, the theater being donated by Mr. Smith to the council of defense. The first official United States war film, "Pershing's Crusaders," in eight reels. It is a picture every mother, sister or sweetheart of a soldier should see; it is better than a letter from the boys over there, for you can see him actually at the grim business and the light-hearted play of war. It is a revelation of a nation aroused in all its might. When you see what your government is doing to insure your freedom, you will put your shoulder to the wheel with new vigor. Here is the truth about the war. Here is Uncle Sam's answer to the lies of the Hun. The first German prisoners taken by American troops in France will be on exhibition in this production. For the first time in this country the public will have a chance to see what our boys have done to get ready and what they are doing "over there." One of the most striking portions of the film is that of the American soldiers at the front. They are shown in the front line trenches taking part in the actual grim activities of warfare with the Hun. Together with this feature will be shown the one reel pageant picture taken here on the Fourth of July and acted by the Tonopah girl scouts; it is well worth the price of admission alone. Also several musical specialties in connection with the musical program. One show only—8 o'clock sharp. adv2211

NO MORE CHEAP CLOTH SAYS ENGLISH EXPERT

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Aug. 22.—Gone, never to return, are the cheap pre-war prices of clothes. That is the view of an expert writing in a British trade publication, and he predicts another rise soon.

Every shot fired from a 12-inch gun, he says, uses up half a bale of cotton, and in three minutes a machine gun will squander a full bale. The price of woolen cloth today is from two and three-quarters to three times greater than it was in July, 1914. Linen prices this year, it is stated, probably will keep at least 33 1-3 per cent above those of 1917.

ATTENTION, MOOSE!

Members of Tonopah Lodge, No. 974, L. O. O. M., please take note that the regular meeting to be held Thursday, the 22nd, is cancelled to give the members a chance to see the government play, "Pershing's Crusaders," at the Butler theater on that date.

By order of the Dictator,
WILLIAM MITCHELL, Secretary.

LETTER FROM FRANCE

Maurice Sullivan, adjutant general, has received a very interesting letter from Sergeant Isaac Bair, who is with the boys on the French front. In his letter he described some very interesting interviews with the French soldiers serving against the Huns.

At the time of his writing he evidently was not aware that his brother had been killed in the recent offensive. He with his brother enlisted from Goldfield.
